I-ENG-A® of Nebraska is the forensic division of REGA Engineering Group, Inc. The firm is a member of the Investigative Engineers Association (I-ENG-A®). I-ENG-A® was founded in 1991 as the first association of forensic and investigative engineers doing business with the property and casualty insurance industries. Being a member of I-ENG-A allows the member firm to tap into forensic engineering resources regarding claims investigation. No single firm, no matter its size or how broad based its coverage, can possibly provide the level of service and combined resources that the national network of I-ENG-A can offer.

REGA Engineering Group, Inc. has been providing Professional Engineering Services since 2003 primarily in the civil engineering, surveying, landscape architecture, project oversight, and land development planning services.

REGA Engineering Group, Inc. joined the I-ENG-A network in an effort to afford their clients with additional services. They are a strong valued, employee owned, consulting firm built on utilizing current technology, client interaction, and professional development.

REGA's goal is to deliver responsive, reliable, well thought out solutions to our clients through our accessibility, flexibility, diversification, and attention to personal detail.

Our investigative services extend to clients in all areas of insurance, loss, and loss mitigation. Typically, an assignment begins with a phone call, letter, fax or email from a potential client. During the initial client interview process, we request certain specific information relating to the case. Items such as the following may be discussed:

- Type of loss
- Date of loss
- Name and address of Insured
- Name and address of Claimant, if different
- Policy number
- Claim Number
- Name and telephone number of contact person at Adjuster's Office
- Estimated value of claim
- General outline of policy coverage

REGA Engineering Group, Inc.
has established an exceptional reputation for outstanding service by providing its clients with dedicated and skilled personnel committed to their work.

Additionally, we solicit other general information that may be available:

- Any records and documents already obtained or available
- Any pertinent information in Adjuster's file
- Circumstances of this loss

If no records or documentation are available from a client or adjuster, we may choose to prepare additional requests for data, directly to the parties involved, their representatives, or any associated insurance providers always copying our client on the communications. Depending on the circumstances, we may also contact the parties involved to arrange an appointment and begin the forensic investigation at the location of damage, loss, or accident.

If the client has obtained records and documents, we will request that they be forwarded to us. After examination, we will consult with the client to agree on the plan for the investigation.

1. I-ENG-A® of Nebraska, A Division of REGA Engineering Group, Inc. will hold an initial discussion with you (the client) at no charge to validate the need for a case assignment.
2. When you offer the assignment, and we accept the assignment, we mutually agree on the initial phase(s) of the investigation, acceptable hours/charges (or not to exceed).
3. As we complete each phase of the assignment, we will provide you an oral report. You provide us with one of the following directions:
 - a. You decide no further analysis is required, and authorize our final billing.
 - b. You decide the analysis is complete, direct us to submit a written report, and authorize our final billing with submission of the report.
 - c. You decide to continue with the next phase of the assignment.
4. If you decide to continue the assignment, you may expect the following:
 - a. You have authorized us to proceed; we will formally acknowledge the assignment, and submit a final bill for the analysis.
 - b. With the bill, we will submit additional time/charge estimate for completing the next phase of the assignment and an amount of the deposit required to begin the phase.
 - c. During the assignment, we will provide you verbal progress reports at least every two weeks, and submit monthly progress billing.
 - d. When we complete the assignment, we will provide a complete verbal report, which we will formalize in writing only upon your authorization to do so.
 - e. We will submit a written report (if you have authorized one) and a final billing.
5. We will provide you with timeliness and the services of qualified experts through our direct staff, our substantial resources and those of the Investigative Engineer's Association. We will handle our assignments in a cost effective manner leaving you in control at all times.

	7 List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1 and the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
- Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.
